

Support Group Information 2021

AA (Alcoholics Anonymous)

AA Referral Service and Treatment Program

713.729.3415 or 281.752.4414

Al Anon (Family of AA member)

Al Anon Family Group Services

713.683.7227

“Solutions”	AA group	meet Saturday’s from 11am – 12pm Room 170
“Recovery Inc.”	self-help group	meet Monday’s from 7:30pm – 9:30pm Room 207
“Steps In Sobriety”	AA group	meet Monday’s 8pm – 9pm Room 218
“Parents of Alcoholics”	Al-Anon group	meet Friday’s 7pm., Room 170
“The Big Book Study	AA group	meet Wednesday’s 6:30pm – 7:30pm Room 126

Addiction and Alcohol Hotline

1-844-244-3171 (Confidential)

General Information:

Al Anon is for family members only (not the abuser)

AA is for ALL Alcoholics Anonymous (abusers)...different meeting types

Recovery, Inc. is not affiliated with AA or Al Anon. This is a separate self-help mental health group that deals with a number of types of anxiety and depression.

None of the above groups are affiliated with MDPC and have no interaction with the Church other than the use of MDPC facility.

MDPC Sponsored:

The Widows Connection

Monthly group meeting with recent and past widows

Once/month on Wednesdays (taking summer break)

6:30-8:30pm

Parlor

Walking the Mourner's Path - Fall 2021

8 week grief program

Thursdays, 9/23-11/11/21

3-4:30pm

Chapel Bride’s Room (116)