Each year on Christmas Eve, MDPC collects a special offering to support select local ministry partners and 12 mission-field workers serving around the world. All checks with "Christmas Eve Offering" on the memo line and cash donations will be sent to bless these families and local ministries.

Stoney Creek

During the fall, winter, and spring, Stoney Creek is booked for retreats by churches and schools. During the summer, however, facilities are dedicated to the Urban Initiative Christian camping program for urban youth. This holistic development of at-risk children in Texas and across the Southwest encourages their move into a personal relationship with Christ.

Aldine Family Hope Center

Aldine Family Hope Center is a Christian-driven community development ministry that is changing lives. It offers hope, support, and empowerment through family coaching, and after-school, summer camp, and enrichment programs for teens. Started as a grass-roots outreach, AFHC has grown and continues to make a positive impact in this overlooked Aldine neighborhood.

Be An Angel

Be An Angel's mission is to improve the quality of life for children with multiple disabilities or profound deafness by providing needed adaptive equipment and select services. Started by a concerned parent who discovered the overwhelming requirements of special needs children at T.H. Rogers, Be An Angel serves thousands of children and their families every year.

Cornerstone

Cornerstone builds Biblical communities through discipleship programs for Spring Branch families and students. Through weekly Bible study, fellowship, and meals, college and career classes, and adult referral and relationship-building programs, it shares the Gospel while supporting and connecting with families in need. Cornerstone lets them know that there is a God who loves them and has a plan for their lives.

12 Missionary Families

MDPC supports a handful of individuals and families who have committed their lives to sharing the Gospel by living among the unreached people groups of the world. For their protection, the families' names are not printed. However, they appreciate your prayers and support as they reflect the light of Jesus into some of the world's darkest places.

An Important Note About Year-end Giving

Checks must be received by Saturday, December 31, for the donation to be reflected on your 2016 giving statement. The Prayer Chapel dropbox (just outside the Front Office) will be accessible that day for last-minute donations. Checks placed in the offering plate or turned in at the Front Desk on Sunday, January 1, 2017 will not be reflected on 2016 giving statements, regardless of the date on the check.

Christmas Eve 2016

The Unexpected

An Unexpected Welcome Party
Luke 2:15-20

Join us the next two holiday Sundays
at these special service times:

Sunday, December 25 (Christmas Day)
ONE 9:45 AM Traditional Service

Sunday, January 1 (New Year's Day)
ONE 9:45 AM Blended Service

Christmas Greetings!

Merry Christmas, friends! Welcome to Christmas Eve services at MDPC. Fifty-one years ago, A Charlie Brown Christmas aired for the first time. Tonight, we will be showing the clip from that film of Linus reciting Luke 2:8-14. Jason Soroski shared in an article something surprising and unexpected that I had never noticed before about that scene. Right in the middle of speaking, Linus drops his blanket. Linus is always seen with his ever-present security blanket. Throughout the stories of Peanuts, Lucy, Snoopy, Sally, and others all work to free Linus from his blanket. He is made fun of because of his blanket.

In the memorable scene when Linus explains "what Christmas is all about," he drops the blanket at the exact moment he says the words, "Fear not." It is clear, now that I see it, what Charles Schultz was affirming: The birth of Jesus helps us release our fears because He gives us the power to break the habits we are unable and often unwilling to break ourselves; the birth of Jesus empowers us to drop our tightly held false securities so that we can learn to trust, cling to, and walk with Him instead. May the peace and new life He came to give be yours in abundance this Christmas.

This season and beyond, expect the unexpected from Jesus!
