*“If you only knew the free gift of God and who it is
who is asking you,
‘Would you please give me
a drink of water?’,
you would have asked him,
and he would have given you – Living Water.”*

The Water Jesus Offers

- Is the gift of God
- Is living water
- Will deeply satisfy your thirst
- Becomes a spring of water
- Gives eternal life

From John Piper, You Will Never Be Thirsty Again

*“The woman says to him,
‘Sir please give me this water, would you, so that I won’t be thirsty anymore and so I won’t have to keep coming here to draw this water.’”*

John 4:15

LAW &
Grace

A close-up photograph of water splashing, with numerous droplets and ripples, set against a deep blue background. The water is captured in mid-air, creating a sense of movement and freshness.

“The woman is a living illustration of the effect of both the Living Water of the Holy Spirit and the true Worship of the Father, both of which she seems to have experienced simultaneously in Jesus’ majestic ‘I Am.’”

*The Gospel of John, A Commentary
by Frederick Dale Bruner*

Look, Lift up your eyes, See ...

Take a good look at almost the whole Samaritan city as it comes from the distance, swept down by the Spirit / Wind who blows where he will, streaming toward Jesus and his disciples like a river of water..

Application Question

Jesus was willing to violate cultural taboos to talk with this sinful Samaritan woman. What cultural taboos do we face that may keep us from talking with others about Christ? Is it time for us to step outside of our comfort zones?

Ahhh – It is that good!
